City Center at Nemours

11th & Tatnall Streets

Monday, January 17, 2011

Get Involved!

Volunteer opportunities at the Nemours Building that day include:

- The Great Winter Clothing Collection with Great Dames, Inc.
- On-the-Go Meal Kit Assembly for the Ronald McDonald House of Delaware
- Letters to Soldiers with RSVP New Castle County

You must register in advance by Thursday, January 13th as a volunteer for any of the above activities by going to this website: www.volunteerdelaaware.org. Once you log into your account (or create a free one), do a search using the keywords "MLK Day." (Logging in is the only way to get details and register). You will find more information on each activity by project name.

There are more MLK Day of Service volunteer opportunities that take place in other locations- check on the website listed above. You can come to the Nemours Building after your volunteer shift is completed.

More Information...

All activities in the Nemours Building will take place on Monday, January 17th from 11 am to 2 pm. Other activities in the building that day include "Test Your Veggie IQ," cardiovascular health and blood pressure testing, and interactive Diversity Awareness for Children exercises. The Delaware Chapter of the National Association of Women Business Owners will assist with questions on your business, and the Wilmington Fire Department Fire Marshal's Office will be on hand to educate on Fire Awareness and Safety.

Lunch will be provided for pre-registered volunteers working in the Nemours Building only inside Theatre N at 1 pm. At 1:15 pm, we'll have an official thank you to the participating volunteers from First Lady Carla Markell, Mayor James M. Baker and Willie Martin, VP of Operations- North America from DuPont.

At 1:30 pm, we will show the film "Taking Root" for free in Theatre N with free popcorn! The film is one hour long, and is a documentary about a woman in Kenya that won the Nobel Peace Prize in 2004 for getting her rural community to plant trees to help their degraded environment.

Parking: Free metered parking downtown that day. $3 to park in the Community Services Center Garage at 11th & Orange Streets (entrance on Orange). Bring your parking ticket in for validation to get this rate.
